The Nature of Belief

This seminar will explore various issues (at the intersection of philosophy of mind and epistemology) regarding the nature of belief. Topics include the norm(s) of belief, the relation between belief and judgment, the varieties of belief, our responsibilities as believers and the ethics of belief, and pathologies of belief.