In this course we will read literary works with philosophical content (like Diderot’s "Rameau’s Nephew") and philosophical works with important literary aspects (like Plato’s "Phaedrus").
Our objective is to learn to read carefully and intelligently and to learn to write in the same way.