PHIL 110

INTRODUCTION TO PHILOSOPHY

In this course we will be examining various traditional topics within philosophy: God and evil, knowledge, mind and body, freedom and determinism, personal identity, ethics, social and political issues, and finally existential issues. We will explore these through classic and contemporary readings on these topics.

In this course we will be exploring several traditional topics within philosophy. Students will be expected (i) to comprehend the various philosophers' arguments on these topics, (ii) to develop their own views on the topics, and (iii) to present their own views, as well as the views of the philosophers we read, in clear, succinct, and forcefully argued thesis papers.
