PHIL 273.1

THE BRADY SCHOLARS PROGRAM: THE GOOD LIFE

This is the first in a sequence of three courses required of sophomores in the Brady Scholars Program in Ethics and Civic Life. Our topic, the good life, will be explored by reading and discussing several recent books. We will ask: what should one try to get out of life? Is there a single best answer to this question? Is each person the final judge of what is good for that individual, or is it possible to be mistaken about where one's good lies? What is the relationship between living well and being moral? What is happiness and how is it best achieved? How important is pleasure?
