PHIL 109–6–21

First Year Seminar: “Conservatives, Libertarians, and Reactions”

Professor Alznauer

M/W
9:30–10:50
Location TBD

First Year Seminar

In this course, we will read some of most important essays in 20th and 21st Century right-wing thought. The goal is to understand the different philosophical and cultural tendencies represented by conservative, neoconservative, libertarian, and reactionary thinkers. Representative authors covered include Carl Schmitt, Friedrich Hayek, Michael Oakeshott, and Gertrude Himmelfarb.