PHIL 262
Ethical Problems and Public Issues
Professor Sheldon

T/TH
3:30–4:50
Location TBD

An analysis of ethical issues that arise in relation to a variety of controversial public issues such as the death penalty, abortion, euthanasia, sexual morality, pornography and censorship, preferential treatment and affirmative action, economic justice and welfare, and the environment and world hunger.